

COMMUNITY POLICY

Musgrave Minerals Limited's (Musgrave Minerals) relationship with the community is an important component of our business. We commit to working with all sectors of the community including land owners, Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander groups, government and non-government organisations and other relevant stakeholders to add value to the communities in which we operate.

Musgrave Minerals seeks to develop long term mutually beneficial relationships with communities, land owners and Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander peoples who are impacted by our exploration, development and operations.

To fulfil this commitment, we will:

- Comply with applicable laws and regulations;
- Openly and honestly communicate our intentions and activities
- Listen to the concerns and advice of effected stakeholders
- Respect Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander peoples values, beliefs and customs (see Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander People's Policy)
- Support activities that strengthen and promote community values

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Robert Waugh", positioned above a horizontal dotted line.

Mr Robert Waugh
Managing Director

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Graham Ascough", positioned above a horizontal dotted line.

Mr Graham Ascough
Chairman